CLERK-LAS CRUCES

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW MEXICO

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

VS.

SAVANNAH PADILLA,

Defendant.

CRIMINAL NO. 19-4184 KG

PLEA AGREEMENT

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11, the parties hereby notify the Court of the following agreement between the United States Attorney for the District of New Mexico, the defendant, SAVANNAH PADILLA, and the defendant's counsel, STEPHANIE LYNNE WOLF:

REPRESENTATION BY COUNSEL

1. The defendant understands the defendant's right to be represented by an attorney and is so represented. The defendant has thoroughly reviewed all aspects of this case with the defendant's attorney and is fully satisfied with that attorney's legal representation.

RIGHTS OF THE DEFENDANT

2. The defendant further understands the following rights:

- a. to plead not guilty;
- b. to have a trial by jury;
- c. to confront and cross-examine witnesses and to call witnesses to testify for the defense; and
- d. against compelled self-incrimination.

WAIVER OF RIGHTS AND PLEA OF GUILTY

3. The defendant hereby agrees to waive these rights and to plead guilty to the Indictment charging in Count 7 a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 371: Conspiracy, in Count 8 a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2119(1): Carjacking and 18 U.S.C. § 2: Aiding and Abetting, and in Count 9 a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(1)(A)(ii): Using, Carrying, and Brandishing a Firearm During and in Relation to a Crime of Violence and 18 U.S.C. § 2: Aiding and Abetting.

ELEMENTS OF THE OFFENSE

4. The elements of 18 U.S.C. § 371: Conspiracy, are:
- a. there was an agreement between two or more persons to commit at least one crime as charged in the indictment;
 - b. the defendant became a member of the conspiracy knowing at least one of its objects and intending to help accomplish it; and
 - c. one of the members of the conspiracy performed at least one overt act for the purpose of carrying out the conspiracy.
5. The elements of 18 U.S.C. § 2119(1): Carjacking, are:
- a. the defendant intentionally took a motor vehicle from a person;
 - b. the defendant did so by means of force and violence;
 - c. the motor vehicle had been shipped in foreign commerce; and
 - d. the defendant intended to cause death or serious bodily injury.
6. The elements of 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(1)(A)(ii): Using, Carrying, and Brandishing a Firearm During and in Relation to a Crime of Violence, are:
- a. the defendant committed a crime of violence;
 - b. the defendant brandished and possessed a firearm; and
 - c. during and in relation to, and in furtherance of, that crime of violence.

7. The elements of 18 U.S.C. § 2: Aid and Abet, are:
 - a. someone else committed the charged crime; and
 - b. the defendant intentionally associated herself in some way with the crime and intentionally participated in it as she would in something she wished to bring about. This means that the government must prove that the defendant consciously shared the other person's knowledge of the underlying criminal act and intended to help him.

SENTENCING

8. The defendant understands that the maximum penalty the Court can impose for Counts 7 and 8 is:

- a. imprisonment for a period not to exceed fifteen years;
- b. a fine not to exceed $250,000.00;
- c. a mandatory term of supervised release of three years. (If the defendant serves a term of imprisonment, is then released on supervised release, and violates the conditions of supervised release, the defendant's supervised release could be revoked--even on the last day of the term--and the defendant could then be returned to another period of incarceration and a new term of supervised release);
- d. a mandatory special penalty assessment of $100.00;

9. The defendant understands that the penalty the Court can impose as to Count 9 is:

- a. imprisonment for a mandatory minimum of seven years which must be served consecutively to any other sentence imposed;
- b. a fine not to exceed $250,000.00;
- c. a term of supervised release of up to five years that must follow any term of imprisonment. (If the defendant serves a term of imprisonment, is then released on supervised release, and violates the conditions of supervised release, the defendant's supervised release could be revoked--even on the last day of the term--and the defendant could then be returned to another period of incarceration and a new term of supervised release); and
- d. a mandatory special penalty assessment of $100.00.

10. The parties recognize that the Sentencing Guidelines are advisory, and that the Court is required to consider them in determining the sentence it imposes.

11. It is expressly understood and agreed by and between the defendant and the United States that:

a. The United States has made, and will make, NO AGREEMENT pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(C), that a specific sentence is the appropriate disposition of this case.

b. The United States has made, and will make, NO AGREEMENT to approve, to oppose, or not to oppose pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(B), any request made by the defendant or on behalf of the defendant for a particular sentence in this case, other than the stipulations agreed to below.

c. The United States hereby expressly reserves the right to make known to the United States Probation Office and to the Court, for inclusion in the presentence report prepared pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32, any information that the United States believes may be helpful to the Court, including but not limited to information about any relevant conduct under USSG § 1B1.3.

d. Except under circumstances where the Court, acting on its own, fails to accept this plea agreement, the defendant agrees that, upon the defendant's signing of this plea agreement, the facts that the defendant has admitted under this plea agreement as set forth below, as well as any facts to which the defendant admits in open court at the defendant's plea hearing, shall be admissible against the defendant under Federal Rule of Evidence 801(d)(2)(A) in any subsequent proceeding, including a criminal trial, and the defendant expressly waives the defendant's rights under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(f) and Federal Rule of Evidence 410 with regard to the facts the defendant admits in conjunction with this plea agreement.

DEFENDANT'S ADMISSION OF FACTS

12. By my signature on this plea agreement, I am acknowledging that I am pleading guilty because I am, in fact, guilty of the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty. I recognize and accept responsibility for my criminal conduct. Moreover, in pleading guilty, I acknowledge that if I chose to go to trial instead of entering this plea, the United States could prove facts sufficient to establish my guilt of the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty beyond a reasonable doubt, including any facts alleged in the Indictment that increase the statutory minimum or maximum penalties. I specifically admit the following facts related to the charges against me, and declare under penalty of perjury that all of these facts are true and correct:

On or about September 7, 2018, and continuing to on or about September 8, 2018, in Grant County, in the District of New Mexico, I acted interdependently and in concert with Daniel Hernandez to commit a carjacking. Specifically, while in a vehicle belonging to K.J., both Daniel Hernandez and I demanded money from K.J. while Daniel Hernandez possessed and brandished a firearm at K.J. I knew that Daniel Hernandez possessed and often carried a firearm on his person. Daniel Hernandez made the presence of the firearm known to K.J. through his actions, and I aided and abetted Daniel Hernandez's actions through verbal threats and intimidation of my own. At one point, Daniel Hernandez demanded that K.J. get out of the driver's seat of his own car and into the back seat. K.J. complied with Daniel Hernandez's command. Shortly thereafter, as I was getting into the front passenger's seat of the vehicle, K.J. fled the vehicle on foot in fear for his life. As K.J. began to flee, I told K.J. to get back into the vehicle. After K.J. continued to flee, I got into the front passenger's seat of the vehicle and Daniel Hernandez and I intentionally took K.J.'s vehicle and drove away from the scene. I acknowledge that K.J.'s vehicle was manufactured in South Korea and therefore traveled in foreign and interstate commerce.

13. By signing this agreement, the defendant admits that there is a factual basis for each element of the crime(s) to which the defendant will plead guilty. The defendant agrees that the Court may rely on any of these facts, as well as facts in the presentence report, to determine the defendant's sentence, including, but not limited to, the advisory guideline offense level.

STIPULATIONS

14. The United States and the defendant stipulate as follows:

a. Pursuant to USSG § 3E1.1(a), the defendant has clearly demonstrated a recognition and affirmative acceptance of personal responsibility for the defendant's criminal conduct. Consequently, so long as the defendant continues to accept responsibility for the defendant's criminal conduct, the defendant is entitled to a reduction of two levels from the base offense level as calculated under the sentencing guidelines. This reduction is contingent upon the defendant providing an appropriate oral or written statement to the United States probation officer who prepares the presentence report in this case in which the defendant clearly establishes the defendant's entitlement to this reduction.

b. Provided the defendant meets the requirements of USSG § 3E1.1(b), the government agrees to move for a reduction of one additional level from the base offense level as calculated under the sentencing guidelines.

c. Apart from the provisions in this plea agreement, the United States and the Defendant reserve their rights to assert any position or argument with respect to the sentence to be imposed, including but not limited to the applicability of particular sentencing guidelines and adjustments under the guidelines.

15. The defendant understands that the above stipulations are not binding on the Court and that whether the Court accepts these stipulations is a matter solely within the discretion of the Court after it has reviewed the presentence report. Further, the defendant understands that the Court may choose to vary from the advisory guideline sentence. The defendant understands that if the Court does not accept any one or more of the above stipulations and reaches an advisory guideline sentence different than expected by the defendant, or if the Court varies from the advisory guideline range, the defendant will not seek to withdraw the defendant's plea of guilty. In other words, regardless of any stipulations the parties may enter into, the defendant's final sentence is solely within the discretion of the Court.

DEFENDANT'S OBLIGATIONS

16. The defendant understands the defendant's obligation to provide the United States Probation Office with truthful, accurate, and complete information, including, but not limited to defendant's true identity, citizenship status, and any prior criminal convictions. The defendant hereby represents that the defendant has complied with and will continue to comply with this obligation. The defendant understands that any misrepresentation with respect to the above obligations may be considered a breach of this plea agreement.

17. By signing this plea agreement, the defendant waives the right to withdraw the defendant's plea of guilty pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(d) unless: (1) the court rejects the plea agreement pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(5) or (2) the defendant can show a fair and just reason as those terms are used in Rule 11(d)(2)(B) for requesting the withdrawal. Furthermore, defendant understands that if the court rejects the plea agreement, whether or not defendant withdraws the guilty plea, the United States is relieved of any obligation it had under the agreement and defendant shall be subject to prosecution for any federal, state, or local crime(s) which this agreement otherwise anticipated would be dismissed or not prosecuted.

WAIVER OF APPEAL RIGHTS

18. The defendant is aware that 28 U.S.C. § 1291 and 18 U.S.C. § 3742 afford a defendant the right to appeal a conviction and the sentence imposed. Acknowledging that, the defendant knowingly waives the right to appeal the defendant's conviction and any sentence, including any fine, at or under the maximum statutory penalty authorized by law, as well as any order of restitution entered by the Court. In addition, the defendant agrees to waive any collateral attack to the defendant's conviction and any sentence, including any fine, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2241, 2255, or any other extraordinary writ, except on the issue of counsel's ineffective assistance.

GOVERNMENT'S AGREEMENT

19. Provided that the defendant fulfills the defendant's obligations as set out above, the United States agrees not to bring additional criminal charges against the defendant arising out of the facts forming the basis of the present Indictment.

20. This agreement is limited to the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Mexico and does not bind any other federal, state, or local agencies or prosecuting authorities.

VOLUNTARY PLEA

21. The defendant agrees and represents that this plea of guilty is freely and voluntarily made and is not the result of force, threats or promises (other than the promises set forth in this plea agreement and any addenda). There have been no representations or promises from anyone as to what sentence the Court will impose.

VIOLATION OF PLEA AGREEMENT

22. The defendant understands and agrees that if the defendant or the defendant's attorney violates any provision of this plea agreement, the United States may declare this plea agreement null and void, and the defendant will thereafter be subject to prosecution for any criminal violation including, but not limited to, any crime(s) or offense(s) contained in or related to the charges in this case, as well as perjury, false statement, and obstruction of justice, and any other crime committed by the defendant during prosecution of this case.

SPECIAL ASSESSMENT

23. At the time of sentencing, the defendant will tender a money order or certified check payable to the order of the United States District Court, District of New Mexico, 333 Lomas Boulevard, NW, Albuquerque, New Mexico 87102, in the amount of $300.00 in payment of the special penalty assessment described above.

ENTIRETY OF AGREEMENT

24. This document and any addenda are a complete statement of the agreement in this case and may not be altered unless done so in writing and signed by all parties. The parties agree and stipulate that this agreement will be considered part of the record of defendant's guilty plea hearing as if the entire agreement had been read into the record of the proceeding. This agreement is effective upon signature by the defendant and an Assistant United States Attorney, and upon entry of a guilty plea by the defendant pursuant to this agreement.

AGREED TO AND SIGNED this 12th day of February, 2021.
